

What Islam Has Done For Me

Islam In Tuskegee

By Anna Karriem

The slang and rhetoric of the so-called cultural, political, and economic revolutions seem to serve as an inhibition to the mental and physical commitments that are necessary to build a Black Nation here in America. This stylistic language is so widespread as to indicate that there is more of a talking revolution going on than anything else. On many occasions after my noon classes, I would meet with some of my classmates and casually converse with them on the most pressing issue of today, the liberation and freedom of Black people in America.

On one particular afternoon, the President of the Tuskegee Institute Student Government Association, one of his staff members and I began to discuss the conditions of Black People. Such statements as "We must become Black Minded; we must not allow ourselves to be astronomically intimidated; Black art is the medium of expression for oppressed Blacks; the universal phenomena of my being dictates that I must be free; or the Black man has been humble for too long." I would reiterate Messenger Muhammad's teachings by asking them to define Black; what is the root of humbleness (as our leader teaches us, every characteristic of the Black man must be proven); where did the Black man come from?; Did he come before the White man or after him? Is Black national or universal? They would lose their oratorical ability and start listening to the Wisdom of Allah's (God's) Messenger as he had given it to me to give to them.

However the so-called Black leader is attempting to intellectualize his way out of the deprivation and oppression under which he has been living for over 400 years. Messenger Muhammad has said on one occasion "We do not talk out a solution; we work it out." Almighty God Allah, Who Came in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom Praises are due forever, has raised one from among us who knows our desires and he has gone to work to make our every need a reality with the help of his God. Yet, some of you self-sent leaders sit down with the devil (white man) and attempt to discredit the honorable accomplishments of the Messenger of Allah (God) as I heard you, Leroi Jones, state over a national television network "We do not believe in a mythological 51st state." You are trying to improve the conditions of Black people through a "Spirit house" situated on 7,532 square miles of land when the world of Islam affects a change in the condition of Black People all over the earth's 196,940,000 square miles of land. The greatest example of this change is being seen here in America under the able leadership of the Most Honorable Elijah Muhammad, Messenger of Allah.

When a German devil called Hitler said he would take over Germany and called the German People the Master Race and future rulers of the world he was not talking about a myth because he was amassing an empire until one of his Brothers who was worse than he intervened, the American white man. When the white man crawled out of the caves of Europe (Messenger Muhammad teaches us that he spent 2,000 years there living the life of a savage) and came to America only to decide that he could not build his empire unless he abducted your forefathers and rüine to help him, he did not call his proposed empire a myth because he was determined to build and has viciously done so. But one greater in Power than the devil has intervened in behalf of His people, Almighty God Allah, Who came to America in the Person of Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom praises are due forever.

You have taken the initiative to call the work of attaining land for Black people's independence here in America mythological when you do not own nor control a square block of the state of New Jersey. No, it is a myth for you to think you will be successful being anything other than a follower of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad. Put away your rhetoric brothers, it's superficial.

The Woman in Islam

By Margary Hassain

IN THE NAME OF ALLAH (God) Master Fard Muhammad, to Whom Praises are due forever. We forever thank Allah (God) for His Industrious Messenger Muhammad.

MESSENGER Muhammad teaches THE WOMAN IN ISLAM that "A Muslim wastes no time. Moreover, every minute we can be learning wisdom." We know for a fact, that if we could contain it, Messenger Muhammad can certainly teach us Divine Wisdom every minute, for he does fill hours upon hours, teaching Divine Wisdom to us night and day.

DIVINE WISDOM envelopes Messenger Muhammad the same as the cloud shrouded the God when He lead the Israelites out of bondage in the time of Moses.

A careful study of the scriptures teaches THE WOMAN IN ISLAM, that All that Messenger Muhammad says and does, is founded in and in reality, justified by, the Word of Allah (God). Avenues are opened to us, that we never before dreamed were possible.

IN Christianity, the Law punished us for not doing this or that. We were complained of and belittled as a people, for not attaining to this or to that, however we were deprived of the means and the opportunity to use even our God-Given natural qualities and abilities.

IN ISLAM, under the Divine Guidance of Messenger Muhammad, he teaches THE WOMAN IN ISLAM not only what to do, but How to do it. We are brought out of the frustrating prison of Christianity, and into the realm of infinite achievement. We heed the cry of Messenger Muhammad of, "Lazarus come forth." No more are our children and future generations bound in the slavery of mind, spirit and body as were our forefathers and ourselves. No longer do our sons have to look forward to the living death of the sluggard of Christianity. Messenger Muhammad with the Divine Word of Allah (God) has restored life to our husband and sons and is putting them on the road to greater and greater achievements, to work and attain and not to sit in idleness and want.

THE WOMAN IN ISLAM GIVES ALL PRAISE TO ALLAH (GOD) FOR HIS DIVINE MESSAGE AND HIS DIVINE MESSENGER MUHAMMAD.

TO HELP MUHAMMAD IS TO HELP YOURSELF

by Dr. Leo PX McCallum
Part 1

One of the many facets of Islam that highlights its basic truths and Divine Origin is its ability to pinpoint and shine its brilliant light on the facts of life. Thus not only does Islam deal with the spiritual side of life, balancing as it must the ever surging drive of man to accumulate wealth, Islam further elucidates how and why one must deal in and understand basic economics.

A CASE in point at this time is the concerted effort of the establishment to rob from us our Alabama farm which the Honorable Elijah Muhammad has legally purchased for his followers with hard earned cash dollars. Coincidental with such devil-like actions is the mounting, devious personal attack being launched against one of the very few true and honest leaders and the only divine Messenger that the Black man in America has ever had -The Honorable Elijah Muhammad.

For many, many years the Honorable Elijah Muhammad's cry has been, "We must have some of this earth that we can call our own." Go back to some of your old Muhammad Speaks Newspapers and you will find such a headline boldly blazoned there. Not being an idle dreamer or man just full of talk, Messenger Muhammad had already launched his drive and formulated plans to do just that—get us some land that we can call our own.

Even if you have not learned yourself, I can guarantee you the people in the know long ago recognized that this dynamic, fearless, divinely guided Messenger of God has Divine Authority working for him, has prophecy working for him. He must and will do that which was written of him. Wise people do not rise up and argue about that which they have no knowledge of; they leave that for the fools, for "negroes."

If Muhammad says that he is the Messenger of Allah, the seal of the prophets, that Lamb of Revelations, that comforter that Jesus spoke about, that Elijah of Malachi, and "that one like unto Moses." the wise ones first check it out. A wise person knows that no one could long wear such shoes without leaving a false footprint somewhere if he were not that one to whom the shoes belonged.

After 40 years of listening to, observing, and minutely examining the works of the Honorable Elijah Muhammad, now only the fool argues for the wise theologians and Scientists have long ago learned and agreed that Messenger Muhammad is just who he says he is—The Messenger of Allah.

Reader Praises Strength Muhammad Gave Brother During Court Trail

Dear Holy Apostle:

I don't mean to be a bothersome brother, but I have been worrying and worrying and I have done all I can to help my brother. I have been down to the City Prison here, time and time again. And the other day, I went to court to what they called a pre-hearing which was the "second pre-hearing." Your letter came to him after he had been in the City Prison here for two weeks or better. I have lost track of the exact date, but it has truly been some time ago.

I HAD to write you and bring this to your attention, and explain the case to you.

He is in this Prison: Ronald Brown, 125 White Street, City Prison—Lower E7, New York, N.Y.

I received your letter and I cannot thank Allah and you, Holy Apostle enough.

AS SALAAM ALAIKUM
Brother Edmund X (Brown)
